Update:

We are currently in the Hurt Series. We first intended this to be a 3 week series, but due to the impact and the conversations coming from these nights, we have decided to extend it out two more weeks. We have had an amazing response, including a number of parents going to our Panel night on November 6 where we brought in two licensed therapist to answer questions submitted by students and parents.

We also had 7 students make decisions to receive Christ on the first night of this series, and 3 more on the second. God is definitely using a heavy topic to bring peace and hope to a generation that desperately needs it.

We have just opened up our registrations for Rocky Mountain High. We will be doing a fundraiser on Black Friday to help support this trip, as well as a a dinner theater and silent auction in the Spring.

Working On:

Sermon writing for Thanksgiving Eve service.

Growing Young Webinars and meeting with the team on November 21.

Spring Sunday school curriculum.
